● ABOUT MYSELF

I am a dedicated, curious and proactive professional with a strong passion for technology and data. Ever since I discovered the power of coding, I have been fascinated by the limitless possibilities it creates.

My career goal is to build a meaningful path in Data Analysis, embracing both the challenges and opportunities along the way. I bring together skills in programming, data analysis and communication, with a strong ability to transform information into valuable insights.

Academic background:

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science – Universitatea „Alexandru Ioan Cuza”, Iași

- Master's Degree in Business Information Systems – Universitatea „Alexandru Ioan Cuza”, Iași - graduated as Valedictorian

- Currently pursuing PhD studies in Economic Informatics

I believe that every day is a chance to learn something new, grow professionally and contribute with value.
