

Rinat Grinberg

Barkay, Israel

Year of Birth: 1974 • I.D. 027136423

Contact: (M) +972-54- 4976525 • rinatg94@gmail.com

---

Professional Summary

- Experience as a project manager in the fields of construction & infrastructure, industry and engineering, leading products from the concept phase to completion and mass production.
- Knowledge of characterization and planning processes, applicability and feasibility testing, communicating with contractors and suppliers in the international market, as well as external and internal customer interfaces.
- Specializing in matrix management and moving many decentralized bodies forward toward a common goal, building work processes, technological understanding and expertise.
- Broad systemic vision, analytic ability, ability to work independently and within a team, excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Education

- 2015 Board of Directors, The Open University
- 2008-2011 MBA in Business Administration, Specialization in project management, The Open University
- 2001-2004 BA in Business Administration, Ruppin Academic Center
- 1995-1999 Architectural Engineering degree, Technion University

Occupational Experience

2019 - Current VP Construction and Infrastructure

- Maytronics - An international company, Manufacture and sale of robots that clean pools
  - Management of a department comprising external and internal project managers.
  - Leading projects from the planning, execution and final stages ,Budget and schedule management
  - Execution management of phases and supply dates while moving broad and decentralized teams and sub-contractors abroad forward.
  - Building characterization according to sketch requirements of internal organizational customers
  - Checking applicability and feasibility of building and maintenances costs, planning schedules.
  - Management of planning change commands due building, product files and quality, leading to a quality project.
  - Key Achievement: Initiating and leading changes in project managing procedures with suppliers, contractors and subcontractors contributing to improvements in quality and schedules, resulting in efficiency and savings.

2017 - Current Director of the Jewish Agency

- Relations with United States Jewry
- Decision making on delegations and relationships with overseas entities
- Member of P2G group – a leadership between USA Jewish federation and group from Israel that have many interactions all over the year.

2010-2019 Management of construction procurement, assets, maintenance and security

- Bank Hapoalim - An international financial organization, the largest bank in Israel
  - Purchasing management in big budgets over 200 million dollars, in construction, assets, general procurement, furniture and security
  - Leading transverse processes in the organization in the field of logistics and procurement, including the construction of new processes.
  - Project management from the initial phase of receiving details from authorities and private entrepreneurs to building and submitting offers.

- Monitored continual phases: characterization process, building specifications, coordination with the customer, up to final delivery.
- Management of construction and maintenance projects from A-Z From a commercial and business perspective

2008-2010      Management of construction procurement, assets, maintenance

- SONOSL - A fuel company, one of the biggest in Israel
  - Construction procurement, maintenance and assets at Sonol company. Execution and management of contracts and negotiations with contractors
  - Purchasing management in construction, electricity, etc., locating assets to build gas stations, inspecting the area
  - Project management from the initial phase of receiving details from authorities and private entrepreneurs to building and submitting offers.
  - Project management Establishment of gas stations nationwide
  - Management of construction and maintenance projects from A-Z From a commercial and business perspective

2003-2008      Project Manager in international Industrial company

- Managing budget tracking pricing and executing large-scale projects including establishing lines Production
- Coordinate planning with architects and consultants, project managers and contractors.
- Negotiating and closing contracts, budget monitoring and scheduling View projects to execute and obtain approvals for multi-participant forums including factory management, staff management

Military Service

1992 - 1995      Executive officer, Lieutenant Colonel, complete service

Computer applications knowledge

Proficient in all Office programs (high level of Excel), SAP, MS Project, priority, Access, AutoCAD

Languages

Hebrew - mother tongue | English - high level

Rinat Grinberg

