

Tidhar Lev

052-9213671 | lev.tidhar@gmail.com | YOB: 1972 | Rechovot | Married + 3

- More than 25 years of management experience in logistic and education units in IDF.
- Leading development of management, leadership and education programs in companies for more than 6 years.
- Involvement and follow up a variety of different organizations as governmental (IDF, Police) health services, Food and real estate.
- Wide experience in generating and processing training program for employees and management as communication skills, creative and innovative thinking, motivation facilitator, team work, etc.
- Working as independent organizational consultant and group facilitator.

Education

1997 - 1999: BA in Logistics and Economics from Bar Ilan University. Graduated with Distinction.
1999 - 2001: MA in Business Management from the Polytechnic University, NY
2016 - 2017: MA in Organizational Consultation from the College of Management, Israel
3 / 2017: Group facilitation at Gishot College
6 / 2017: Certified instructor for group facilitation from Gishot Colleg
2020- PhD Student Economics and Business Administration "ALEXANDRU IOAN CUZA" University of IAȘI

Experience

May 2017-Present: Self-employed as an organizational consultant, group facilitator and lecture specializing in management and leadership. Following organizations and run workshops in a variety of fields such as time management, leadership, creative thinking and emotional intelligence.

2009-2016: Maintenance and Technology Officer, Lieutenant Colonel

2013-2016: Commander of the School for Commanders in the Maintenance and Technology Corp

- ❖ Responsible for execution of more than 60 different training and education programs for all officer engineers and corps leadership
- ❖ Managing school operation including about 250 officers and soldiers
- ❖ Leading the evolvement of the leadership programs with upper management level of the technology Corps

2011-2013: Serving as the technology supervisor officer in operation division

- ❖ Led the maintenance and technology activity of the division
- ❖ Cultivated the human resources aligned with technology within the unit

2009-2011: Deputy of the Technology Unit proving region maintenance

- ❖ Led logistical operations in the technology unit that provided maintenance services to thousands vehicles, tanks, armored vehicles as well electro-optic equipment under the central command
- ❖ Directed 9 different workshops - professionally supervised approx. 1,000 officers, NCOs and Priv:

- ❖ Generating an integrative work-plan for the short- and long-term including managing resources and facilities, professional technological teams, and leading and improving work processes, security and QA

1991-2009 Various positions as Technology officers in IDF units

- ❖ Management of technology units serving various army operations
- ❖ Responsibility and leadership of writing instruction books and documents, techniques and operation procedures to be implemented in all technology units
- ❖ Following human resources in professional training programs, guidance and leadership
- ❖ Serving as focal point for technology and maintenance issues in the units.

Language

Hebrew : mother tongue

English : fluent

Tidhar Lev
